Our top priority is to deliver a high-quality service to all of our tenants and customers, and it is great to hear when we are.

However, we do know that sometimes things may go wrong. We want you to tell us if this happens so we can put things right.

Our complaints process is in line with the Housing Ombudsman Complaint Handling Code, which you can find on their website www.housing-ombudsman.org.uk

You can contact the Housing Ombudsman for advice and guidance at any stage of our complaints process. See page 5 for their contact details.

Should you wish, you can also have an advocate/someone to deal with your complaint on your behalf, such as a friend, relative or MP.

Your feedback is important to us

Our tenants and customers are at the heart of what we do and we want to provide you with the best service possible.

We are grateful when you tell us when we get things right or when you feel there could be room for improvement, to know how we are doing.

We have three categories for the various types of feedback you may wish to provide:

1. Compliments

You are happy with something that we have done and want to let us know to keep doing more of it and let colleagues know you have appreciated the service.

2. Complaints

You are dissatisfied with a service you have received from us and would like your complaint investigated further.

3. Comments

You would like to comment on the services we provide and suggest how we can improve.

Complaints procedure

We have a complaint and feedback procedure that we follow:

Stage One

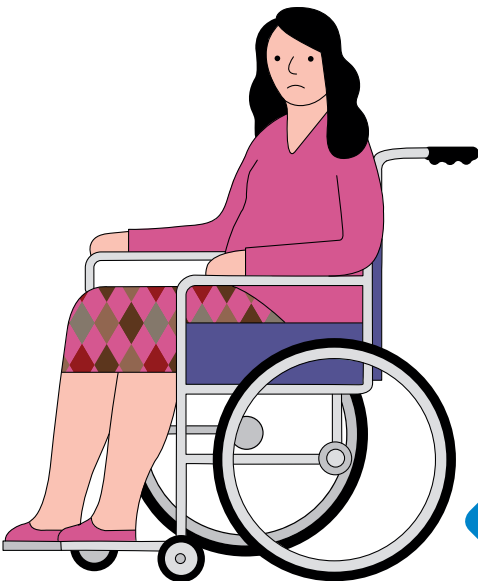

We will record and acknowledge your complaint within five working days. A dedicated case handler will investigate your complaint and aim to respond to you in writing within 10 working days. If we cannot provide you with our response within this time, we will contact you, explain why, and confirm when you can expect a response.

Stage Two

If you remain dissatisfied following our Stage One response, you can request a review of your complaint by a senior manager.

There are some exceptions to a complaint being able to progress to Stage Two. If your complaint falls under these exceptions, we will ensure that you are advised of this and guide you on your next steps. We will acknowledge and progress your complaint within five working days. A manager will review your complaint and aim to respond to you in writing within 20 working days.

If we cannot provide you with our response within this time, we will contact you, explain why and confirm when you can expect our response.

Taking your complaint further

You can contact the Housing Ombudsman. However, we aim to resolve your complaint by following our complaints process.
