

Social value 2024/25

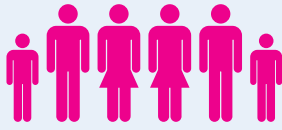

The information below shows what Progress Housing Group has achieved during the year as part of our commitment to social value.

Social value is important in demonstrating the difference we can make through the provision of services.

Progress Futures - our training and employment support service

212
tenants supported by Progress Futures

43
tenants supported into employment by Progress Futures

36
tenants supported into education or training by Progress Futures

5
tenants were provided volunteering opportunities through Progress Futures

7
interns supported through the Project SEARCH programme providing internships for young autistic people or those with learning disabilities

678
attendances at community-based job clubs

Investing in our employees

17
people started an apprenticeship with the Group using the Apprenticeship Levy

38
tenants employed by the Group

84%
of colleagues are satisfied with the Group as an employer

86%
of employees stayed with the Group, reflecting strong retention and commitment

48
employee secondments/promotions

4
colleague volunteering days taken (Volunteering Leave)

Customer voice - involving tenants in shaping services

530
tenants took part in involvement and community activities

5,276
attendances at involvement and community activities

Investing in community projects

£88,322
committed by the Community Investment Fund

43
projects supported by the Community Investment Fund

£13,212
committed by the Charity Fund supporting fundraising activities of tenants and colleagues

192
colleague hours in volunteering and enrichment projects

13
volunteering and enrichment projects delivered and supported

